Week 6, Term 3  Monday 18th August 2014

Miss Bush – Leave
Miss Bush has started leave this week. She has headed off on her trip to Africa! Mrs Sheridan will be the relieving Principal and Mrs Neary will be the relieving Assistant Principal in her absence. Miss Bush will return to school week 1 Term 4.

Welcome Mr Lu
We would like to Welcome Mr Lu to Kemps Creek Public School! He has started work this week on 3/4S. He will be teaching 3/4S until the end of the year.

Welcome Back Mrs Visser!
Mrs Visser is back in the office this week after her long service leave trip to the United Kingdom. We hope she had a great time and can’t wait to hear all of her stories!

Cowpasture Community of Schools
Debating Competition
Good luck to our newly formed debating team who will start their first debating workshop and live debate this Thursday. Good luck to Jessica Csillag, Andrew Ngov, Jessica Sant and Samantha Granic. It will be a busy but exciting day for you! Mr JB is heading to the workshops with you.

Library Reminders
This is the last week for children to complete their reading for the Premier’s Reading Challenge. I am pleased to say that most participants have already finished. Hopefully the last few will do so too.

Our Book Week Celebrations will be held in Week 8, Wednesday, 3rd September. The theme for this year is "Connect to Reading". We hope to see everyone dressed as a book character or as something to do with the theme for our Book Character Parade on Wednesday morning.

The group performance will present their show "Worlds Apart" which is based on the short listed books for Book Week, on Wednesday afternoon at a cost of $8 per child. Permission notes will be sent home shortly. We are also lucky enough to be having a visit from the wonderful children's book illustrator, Craig Smith as part of our celebrations. More on his visit will be coming soon. Looking forward to an exciting few weeks!
